

The National Freedom Network (NFN) exists to promote and facilitate a joint response by South African role players working against human trafficking.

Great news: Andrew and Diane had their second little one in August and we are thrilled to share that Jessica is doing very well. Thank you to everyone for your love, prayers and support through what has been a challenging but incredible faith journey.

We would like to introduce you to Julia Conway who has joined the NFN team as assistant administrator (She is in the office on Mondays only). Julia has many years of admin experience, is passionate about networking and very insightful. She worked for Jonathan Ball Publishers and was part of the launching of Elanie Kruger's book Van Skoolbank tot Bordeelbed.

The Network News aims to provide current news and resources to the counter-human trafficking community in South Africa and further afield. We are grateful to Jacqueline Fourie, Small Voice Human Trafficking for faithfully compiling this valuable information every two weeks. Thank you!

Marcel van der Watt has contributed in many ways throughout this year as a speaker, trainer and an interviewee on television, radio and for newspapers answering many questions and providing insightful information regarding human trafficking in South Africa. His knowledge and experience are most valuable especially at conferences like the Africa Border Management & Security conference.

We wish him all the best as he concludes the final stages of his PhD. Well done and thank you!

National Association of Democratic Lawyers (NADEL)
Action Plan to Combat Human Trafficking
 Collaborating with the National Freedom Network (NFN)

FACT:

Human trafficking is the fastest growing criminal activity in the world second only to the drug trade.

How can you help someone who has been trafficked?

Call 0800 222 777 to report and obtain assistance!

WHAT CAN LAWYERS DO? Join us for a workshop presented by

Prof. Beatri Kruger, University of the Free State and National Freedom Network and Marcel van der Watt, University of South Africa and National Freedom Network

16 October 2017 Bloemfontein, Free State Time: 12h00 – 15h30

Venue: Kopano Nokeng Country Lodge, 14 Mazelspoort Rd, Bloemfontein

21 October 2017 Umtata, Eastern Cape

23 October 2017 Polokwane, Limpopo

25 October 2017 Emalahleni, Mpumalanga

27 October 2017 Durban, KZN

28 October 2017 Queenstown, Eastern Cape

RSVP at least 4 days before the date of the workshop. Limited seats available!

For further information, please contact: Memory Thulile Sosibo, NADEL Training Coordinator

Mobile: 081 7107910 Email: memorys@nadel.co.za Website: www.nadel.co.za

Thanks also go to Prof. Beatri Kruger and Marcel van der Watt for collaborating with NADEL to empower and equip lawyers and attorneys around the country.

MeCAHT INTERNATIONAL HUMAN TRAFFICKING CONFERENCE FOR AFRICA

19-22 October 2017

Marina attended the MeCAHT conference this year. The theme of the conference, organized by Alex and Anne Abok, was “Sustainable Freedom”. The speakers, several of whom came from overseas, were of a high calibre and brought a wealth of knowledge and a depth of insight into the various aspects of the fight against human trafficking. The conference was informative, empowering, emotive and ultimately fuelled the passion of over 150 participants to continue the fight against modern day slavery.

A highlight for Marina was the launch of the book Buttercup and the many networking opportunities. At the gala dinner on Saturday night NFN were invited to share more about the NFN and its successes.

It was great to have some government representatives attending and participating at the conference.

"Every year at the MeCAHT conference, a variety of passionate, driven, and spirit-led leaders come together from all over the globe to stand together, speak out, and fight back against human trafficking. And each year I am humbled by the wisdom, the testimonies, and the unconditional love that pour out of these incredible individuals. It's a blessing to be a part of such a beautiful, transformative, and empowering venture!" - Sam Stokesberry, Outreach Coordinator – STOP

Panel Discussion (left to right), Dieter Lubbe – Pinion Project, Madri Brouwer – Straatwerk, Errol Naidoo – Family Policy Institute, Ole Gundersen – Street Garden Ministries, Norway, Officer Durrbaum- The Hawks, Kyle Miller – Global Care & Response – USA, D.O. Abrahams – Vice Consul (Information & Culture), Consulate General of Nigeria in South Africa, Major Margaret Stafford – Salvation Army, Seipati Mitlabane - Dept of Social Development, Katie Modrau - A21 Campaign South Africa

Great opportunity for networking with Graham Haddad, Pierre Roux and Peter Kotze who are passionate men with hearts to fight human trafficking. Coffee with Graham and Pierre and breakfast at the airport with Peter discussing what they have achieved and are planning for 2018 was encouraging and inspiring.

WALK FOR FREEDOM

On the 14 October 2017, across South Africa, thousands joined to take a stand against the injustice of human trafficking. Thank you to everyone who supported - We are stronger together.

Networking

NFN connected Corinne, STOP who was visiting Nepal with Network Partner Bhuvan from New Light Nepal!!!!

NFN attended Hope for Women Prayer meeting

6 November 2017

Vision: "I see organisations with integrity gaining access to corporates with truthful and transparent proposals written with God's stamp of approval. I see funding flowing to non-profit companies freely."

Sweatshop challenge at Monash University

12 October 2017

Well done to Ushi from Inhuman Trade for your captivating presentation.

The Sweatshop Challenge is a unique way of simulating labour trafficking.

1000 Women Trust event

24 November 2017

16 days of activism

Ad Outpost going forward 2018

Billboards

Street Pole Ads

Toiletry packs and sponsorship

Magazine articles

Books to read

Description

Do you know where your son/daughter is? Lawlessness abounds and villains take advantage of this flaw in dysfunctional societies and a world that is seemingly spiraling out of control. Who to trust, who to turn to as all systems fail? The key to these questions lies between the pages of this inspiring and exciting must-read work. HIS EYE UPON US is an intriguing and daring 'do or die' escapade of three young girls caught in a nightmarish trap by their traffickers. Can Sasha's faith save them? 'O Lord help me,' she silently whispered before she made her move... catching him by complete surprise.

What a heart breaking yet inspiring journey. Well done Maarit Eronen and the many who journeyed with Buttercup. buttercup.book@gmail.com

Books > Reference & Interdisciplinary > Communication studies

Brilliant insight and I'm only on page 20

Play production

22 November 2017

at Children's Theatre depicting one of the recruitment methods used by traffickers: Lover-boy, Romeo pimping or the Blesser.

The play highlights the dangers of young girls embracing the appealing option of getting out of poverty through becoming sexually involved with older men. At first glance it might seem innocent fun, and it might well be if both parties were consenting adults, but a closer look reveals the ugly truth. This project was funded by American Embassy.

FC Webinar - NGOs and Academia in the Fight Against Human Trafficking: Current Partnerships and Challenges

Wed, Oct 25, 2017 2:00 PM - 3:30 PM SAST

This was a very interesting webinar. We have amazing academics in South Africa contributing, participating and collaborating with NGOs.

We donated toward Home of Hope's global giving project.

Help Educate
Trafficked Child Sex
Abuse Survivors

Donations

4 December 2017

Duke
CORPORATE EDUCATION

Guests arrived with a care package as their entrance ticket to an appreciation event held by Duke Corporate Education at the Campus in Bryanston.

Thank you, Pamela Naidoo, for this great initiative which guarantees over 50 adults and children will receive some much needed items.

13 December 2017

kumalogreen
TRAINING FOCUSED ON RESULTS

Thank you to KumaloGreen for the donation of blankets for safe houses.

If you see something, say something.
0800 222 777

Resources were sent to Northern Cape Provincial Government Kuruman, to distribute while raising awareness in the province.

19 December 2017

Huge thanks go to Shelley and ladies for these lovely goodies which were delivered to a safehouse on 4 Jan 2018.

NFN attended the closed session with 26 journalists from around the world to discuss reporting on human trafficking specifically forced labour in their countries. The speakers were Martha Mendoza, Tim Sandler, Malia Politzer, Emmanuel Mayah and Madelene Cronjé.

GIJN @gijn · 19h
#GIJC17 Voices: "Be careful for the victims, don't re-exploit them. People should be able to tell their stories when they are ready." @mendozamartha's advice on investigating human trafficking buff.ly/2zGPXtE

Media play an enormous role in shaping perceptions and guiding the public conversation about human trafficking. Human trafficking schemes are constantly evolving, and the media's vigilance helps keep the public informed and engaged. As media pursues more research and investigative work on the issue, the public will better understand how the crime works, how to identify and help trafficking victims, and ultimately, what can be done to prevent the crime from happening.

GIJN

We are thankful for those who volunteer in our communities to assist at cases of crime. We were able to share information and resources with Bev subsequent to a case of human trafficking earlier in the year.

Julia and Marina visited Sonnika (Ladies Arise), Ruth (Cherished) and Amy (The Grace Factory) this month. These ladies are serving and making a huge difference in their communities.

We are grateful for our team of 25 prayer warriors and 12 devotional writers who have diligently supported us over the year. Thank you!

For those wanting to learn more about human trafficking in South Africa, we have a website dedicated to press releases, videos and academic research specific to South Africa. We have also included recommended books to read, movies to watch and learning opportunities.

Press Releases uploaded
October 52
November 66
December 50

NationalFreedomNetwork

@NFN_SA

8 of 8